

Introducing the newest TSNZ Executive Member - Jess Burgess-Smith

Jess lives in Palmerston North and is a member of the Rongotea Smallbore Rifle Club.

Jess has a love for target shooting and is passionate about developing new shooters as well as seeing the sport grow. Since starting indoor smallbore at the age of 13, she has taken up outdoor 50m, Air Rifle and 3 Position shooting. During her shooting career, she has been a part of the Junior Development Squad, has competed at numerous regional and national events both indoor and outdoor, and has been selected for several New Zealand teams.

Outside of shooting, Jess is a student at Manawatu Massey University, studying a Bachelor of Science, and works part-time for a graphic design business.
