

In the first semi final on the scoreboard between the Thoroughbreds and the Marauders, the first 300 of the night was posted by Janet Hunt, with 300.20, an excellent score, and it stood for an hour or so, until Roy Herbison finished his double and posted a 300.24. Excellent shooting from 2 well respected members of our sport. Manawatu kept the pressure on the Thoroughbreds posting a 2951.160 in the Open, vs 2936.152, and taking the 5 points. However, the Thoroughbreds came through in the Combined, with D grade Emma James-Ries posting her first 100.08, to help the team take the 4 points and the Juniors all worked well together to grab the Junior 3 points. With bonus points the Thoroughbreds won 9:6 to go through to the Final. In the other semi final match in this League, the Wellington Tigers Pippa Taylor posted her first 100.10 in the Junior division, to take 2 bonus points, and father Rob, not to be outdone, posted a 200.13, to grab another bonus point for the Tigers. The Tigers Open team fended off the Eastern Force by 1 point, but despite the best efforts of the Taylor family, Eastern Force Combined team pipped the Tigers by 7 inners, 1465.74 to 1465.67, and the Juniors by 6 points. Eastern Force juniors Harry Lange and Toby Gyde added to the team bonus points both scoring Junior 100's, which added to their Composite and Junior wins gave the Eastern Force the total team win 10 points to 8. and taking the Eastern Force through to the Final, against the Waikato Thoroughbreds.
